

The Japanese Language Section for International Students
at Tohoku Bunkyo College

The Japanese Language Section for International Students (hereafter referred to as “JLS”) has been providing a one-year intensive Japanese language course for those who wish to study Japanese in pursuit of further education in Japanese universities or colleges. Tohoku Bunkyo College is located in Yamagata City, at the foot of beautiful Zao Mountain Range , famous as a ski resort with hot springs. Our school is an ideal place for studying in a quiet rural setting.

The intensive course is carefully designed to help individual students learn Japanese step by step from beginning level in a small group. Most of the students who enrolled in this course in the past successfully completed a vigorous one-year study and were admitted to Japanese universities or colleges of their choices.

1. Enrollment: 15 students

2. Duration of study: One year, from April to January, next year

3. Class schedule: Monday through Friday, from 8:40 a.m. to 3:50 p.m.,

4. First Semester : April to September, studying Beginning and Intermediate level Japanese.

Second Semester : October to January, studying Intermediate and Pre-Advanced level to prepare for the Examination of Japanese University Admission for International Students.

5. Selection of students: Students will be selected on the basis of documents submitted by the applicants to the Admission Office of the college.

6. School expenses:	Enrollment fee	60,000 yen
	Tuition for a year	500,000 yen
	Texts and other expenses	80,000 yen
	Total	640,000 yen

7.Future opportunities: Those who successfully completed the JLS course and wish to pursue their study at Tohoku Bunkyo College/Tohoku Bunkyo Junior College will be admitted to the college with strong recommendations from the Department Head of JLS. The college will provide special scholarships for international students and reduced entrance fee for the graduates of JLS course. There will be careful guidance and counseling for all the students about their future plans in Japan.

8. School facilities: As members of the college community, students of JLS are entitled to use such school facilities as the library, gymnasium, cafeteria, school infirmary and computers for international students.

- 9. Location and environment: Yamagata City is located in the northern part of Honshu Island. It takes less than 3 hours by bullet train from Tokyo and 1 hour by train or 1.5 hours by bus from Sendai. The college is located within the city boundary but in a quiet rural setting, ideal for studying. The view of Zao Mountain Range from the campus is breath-taking.
